

NEWS RELEASE

Implats awarded first place in Financial Mail Top Companies survey

Impala Platinum Holdings Ltd (Implats) is delighted to have been awarded first place in the Financial Mail's Top Companies Survey for the second year running.

The survey, which is run by one of South Africa's foremost financial publications, considered various factors in determining its ratings, including growth in earnings per share and the internal rate of return over the past five years as well as the company's profit prospects and growth strategy, management strength and corporate governance.

Keith Rumble, CEO of Implats, said "We are both honoured and humbled to have received this award again. Credit for this award goes to all the committed employees of Implats who have contributed to ensuring that the company operates as efficiently as possible. Furthermore, a reward like this helps to reinforce our commitment to enhancing shareholder returns."