

NEWS RELEASE

---

Work stoppage has ended

---

The work stoppage at Impala Platinum Holdings Limited (Implats) has ended, with employees having returned to work with effect from the night shift on 30 March 2003.

The financial implications for the company remain the same as was issued in a statement on Friday 28 March 2003.

Management will be working with employee representatives to identify ways of making up the lost production suffered during the work stoppage.